

Clinical order sign-off

Order confirmation

Page 1 of 1

This confirms the order described below for the patient named above. By signing, the clinician states that they gave or reviewed the order, that it is complete and accurate as written, and that it may be acted on.

A signature here is a clinical act. The records system asks the clinician to confirm their identity again immediately before it is taken, and records how and when that was done.

Patient name

Order reference

Order summary

Clinician signature

Date signed